

Infographics Quiz
Faculty Member:

1. A good infographic...
 - a. Is visual representation of factual information.
 - b. Show things, rather than simply telling things that can be explained in text.
 - c. Uses a visual arrangement to organize the information in a helpful way.
 - d. All of the above.

2. True or False: Adding icons or illustrations to a block of text is a good way to create an infographic on deadline.
 - a. True
 - b. False

3. Which type of graphic would be most appropriate if you are trying to show HOW THINGS COMPARE?
 - a. Map
 - b. Chart
 - c. Diagram
 - d. Timeline

4. Which type of graphic would be most appropriate if you are trying to show WHERE THINGS ARE?
 - a. Map
 - b. Chart
 - c. Diagram
 - d. Timeline

5. Which type of graphic would be most appropriate if you are trying to show WHEN THINGS HAPPENED?
 - a. Map
 - b. Chart
 - c. Diagram
 - d. Timeline
 - e. Relational diagram

6. Which type of graphic would be most appropriate if you are trying to show HOW SOMETHING WORKS?
 - a. Map
 - b. Chart
 - c. Diagram
 - d. Timeline
 - e. Relational diagram

- 7. True or False: Information should be displayed in a graphic whenever possible.
- a. True
 - b. False
- 8. Which type of graphic would be most appropriate if you are trying to show HOW THINGS ARE CONNECTED?
- a. Map
 - b. Chart
 - c. Diagram
 - d. Timeline
 - e. Relational diagram
- 9. Which type of relational diagram would be best for showing overlap between groups or categories?
- a. Organizational chart
 - b. Flow chart
 - c. Venn diagram
 - d. Playoff bracket
- 10. When it comes to designing a graphic, the primary goal is to use design elements and principles to...
- a. Make things look pretty.
 - b. Draw attention to the parts of the graphic that really matter.
 - c. Make the text legible.
 - d. All of the above.